 - 5.2.3 is approved by the Trustees; and
 - 5.2.4 consents in writing to become a Member either personally or (in the case of an organisation) through an authorised representative.

- 5.4 Membership is not transferable.

6. GENERAL MEETINGS

Calling a general meeting

- 6.1 A general meeting may be called at any time by the Trustees and must be called within 21 days of a written request from at least 5% of the Members in accordance with the Companies Acts to be held on a date not more than 28 days after the date of the notice.
- 6.2 General meetings are called on at least 14 clear days' written notice specifying the business to be discussed or shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of the Members having a right to attend and vote at that meeting who hold at least 90% of the total voting rights at that meeting of all the Members.
- 6.3 The notice of general meeting shall specify the place, the date and the time of the general meeting, state the general nature of the business to be dealt with at the meeting and state with reasonable prominence that a Member is entitled to appoint another Member as their proxy to exercise all or any of their rights to attend and to speak and vote instead of them. If the meeting is to be an AGM, the notice must say so.

- 6.4 Where it is intended to pass a Special Resolution at a general meeting, the notice must include the text of the resolution and state that it is intended to propose the resolution as a Special Resolution.
- 6.5 Notice must be sent to:
 - 6.5.1 the Charity's auditors (if any);
 - 6.5.2 the Trustees; and
 - 6.5.3 the Members.
- 6.6 The accidental omission to give notice of any general meeting, or to send a form of proxy with a notice where required, or the non-receipt of a notice or form of proxy, shall not invalidate the proceedings at any general meeting.

Attending a general meeting

- 6.7 Members are entitled to attend general meetings either personally, (in the case of a Member organisation by an authorised representative), by proxy or by suitable means agreed by the Trustees in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants. Proxy forms must be delivered to the registered office of the Charity (or such other address or electronic address specified by the Charity for that purpose) in such form as the Trustees may prescribe from time to time not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the Member named in the proxy notice proposes to vote. If it arrives late, or does not arrive at all, the proxy will not be allowed to attend and vote at the meeting.

Quorum

- 6.8 There must be a quorum present before a general meeting starts to do business. There is a quorum at a general meeting if the number of Members present in person, by authorised representative or by proxy is at least 20.

Proceedings at general meetings

- 6.9 The President (if the President is unable or unwilling to do so), the Chair or (if the Chair is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Trustee elected by those Members present presides at a general meeting.

- 6.10 Except where otherwise provided by the Articles or the Companies Acts, every issue at a general meeting is decided by a majority of the votes cast.
- 6.11 Every Member present in person, or through an authorised representative, or by proxy has one vote on each issue.
- 6.12 A declaration by the person chairing the meeting that a resolution has been:
- 6.12.1 carried;
 - 6.12.2 carried unanimously, or by a particular majority;
 - 6.12.3 not carried; or
 - 6.12.4 not carried by a particular majority, and
- an entry to that effect in the minutes of the general meeting, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes in favour of or against the resolution.
- 6.13 Subject to the Companies Acts, the proceedings at any general meeting or the passing of a written resolution shall not be invalidated by reason of any accidental informality or irregularity (including with regard to the giving of notice) or any want of qualification in any of the persons present or voting.
- 6.14 If any person wishes to object to the qualification of any vote, they must do so at the meeting at which the vote they object to is tendered. A vote which is not disallowed at the meeting will be deemed valid. The person chairing the meeting will be the sole judge of the validity of every vote tendered at the meeting.

Written resolutions

- 6.15 A written resolution signed by a majority of those entitled to vote at a general meeting (or, where the Companies Acts require, a greater majority) is as valid as a resolution actually passed at a general meeting. For this purpose the written resolution may be set out in more than one document and will be treated as passed on the date of the last signature required to reach the relevant majority.

Annual general meetings

- 6.16 The Charity must hold an AGM in every year.
- 6.17 At an AGM, the Members:

- 7.2 The Charity must maintain a register of Trustees (which may be called a register of directors).

Number of Trustees

- 7.3 There shall be between four and twelve Trustees, subject to article 7.10, all of whom must be Members. If the number of Trustees shall fall below four, the remaining Trustees may act only to appoint further Trustees as required, circulate a written resolution to the Members and/or to call a general meeting.

Appointment of Trustees

- 7.4 Subject to article 7.10, Trustees are to be appointed by the Members.
- 7.5 No one is entitled to act as a Trustee whether on appointment or on any reappointment:
 - 7.5.1 unless they have attained 18 years of age;
 - 7.5.2 until they have expressly acknowledged, in whatever way the Trustees decide, their acceptance of the office of Trustee; or
 - 7.5.3 in circumstances such that, had they already been a trustee, they would have been disqualified from acting under article 7.11.3 or 7.11.4
- 7.6 The appointment of a Trustee must not cause the number of Trustees to exceed any number fixed as the maximum number of Trustees.

Terms of office and retirement by rotation

- 7.7 Trustees shall be appointed for terms of three years. A Trustee who has served their term must retire at the AGM closest to the three year anniversary of their term commencing.
- 7.8 A retiring Trustee who remains qualified may be reappointed for a maximum of two further consecutive terms of office.
- 7.9 The Trustees may, in circumstances which they consider to be exceptional, permit up to one or more of the Trustees to serve one or more additional consecutive terms of office, provided that any such further reappointment may only take effect with the consent of at least 75% of the other Trustees.
- 7.10 Subject to article 7.3, the Trustees may at any time appoint any individual who is qualified to be appointed as a Trustee to fill a vacancy in their number or as an additional Trustee (a "Co-opted Trustee"), but a Co-opted Trustee holds office only until the next AGM. Where such an individual is not a Member at the time of their appointment pursuant to this article and article 7.3 requires that a Trustee is a Member then the Co-opted Trustee must become a Member within 28 days of their appointment failing which, on expiry of that period, then they shall cease to hold office.

Retirement and removal of Trustees

- 7.11 A Trustee's term of office automatically terminates if they:
- 7.11.1 resign by written notice to the Trustees (but only if at least four Trustees will remain in office);
 - 7.11.2 die;
 - 7.11.3 are disqualified under the Charities Act from acting as a Charity Trustee or are prohibited by law from being a director of a company, or are disqualified from being a charity trustee under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 or Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008;
 - 7.11.4 are, in the reasonable opinion of the other Trustees, at any time incapable, whether mentally or physically, of managing their own affairs;
 - 7.11.5 are absent from three consecutive meetings of the Trustees and are asked by a majority of the other Trustees to resign;
 - 7.11.6 cease to be a Member (but such a person may be reinstated by resolution passed by all the other Trustees on resuming Membership of the Charity before the next AGM);

7.11.7 are co-opted in accordance with article 7.10 and fail to become a Member within 28 days of that appointment as required by article 7.10;

7.11.8 are removed by resolution of the Members present and voting at a general meeting (but only if at least four Trustees will remain in office) after the meeting has invited the views of the Trustee concerned and considered the matter in the light of any such views; or

7.11.9 are removed as a Trustee by a two thirds majority resolution of the Trustees present and voting at a meeting on the ground that in their reasonable opinion for the Trustee to continue as a Trustee would be harmful to the Charity. The Trustees may only pass such a resolution after notifying the Trustee in writing and considering the matter in the light of any written representations which the Trustee concerned puts forward within 14 clear days after receiving notice.

8. TRUSTEES' PROCEEDINGS

8.1 The Trustees must hold at least one meeting each year.

Calling Trustees' meetings

8.2 A Trustee may at any time, and the Secretary (if any) must at the request of a Trustee, summon a meeting of the Trustees.

Attendance and voting at Trustees' meetings

8.6 A meeting of the Trustees may be held either in person or by suitable electronic means (including but not limited to telephone calls with or without video conferencing facilities) agreed by the Trustees in which all participants may communicate with all the other participants simultaneously.

- 8.7 The Chair or (if the Chair is unable or unwilling to do so) some other Trustee chosen by the Trustees present presides at each meeting.
- 8.8 Any issue may be determined by a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting, but a resolution in writing agreed by all the Trustees, or all the members of a committee, (other than any Conflicted Trustee, or conflicted committee member, who has not been authorised to vote) is as valid as a resolution passed at a trustees' meeting, or a meeting of a committee (as appropriate). For this purpose the resolution may be contained in more than one document.
- 8.9 Except for the chair of the meeting, who has a casting vote, every Trustee has one vote on each issue.
- 8.10 Subject to the Articles, the Trustees may regulate their meetings as they see fit.

Procedural defects

- 8.11 A procedural defect of which the Trustees are unaware at the time does not invalidate decisions taken at a meeting.
- 8.12 Subject to article 8.13, all decisions of the Trustees or a committee of the Trustees shall be valid notwithstanding the participation in any decision of a Trustee:
- 8.12.1 whose appointment is subject to a technical defect of which the Trustees are unaware at the time the decision is made;
 - 8.12.2 who was disqualified from holding office;
 - 8.12.3 who had previously retired or who had been obliged by the Articles to vacate office;
 - 8.12.4 who was not entitled to vote on the matter, whether by reason of a Conflict of Interest or otherwise;
- if without the vote of that Trustee and that Trustee being counted in the quorum, the decision was made by a majority of Trustees at a quorate meeting.
- 8.13 Article 8.12 does not permit a Trustee or Connected Person to keep any benefit that may be conferred on them by a resolution of the Trustees or a committee of the Trustees if, but for article 8.12, the resolution would have been void.
